

In Jesus,
God's love is certain.

Romans 8:28-39

<sup>28</sup> And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose. <sup>29</sup> For those God foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brothers and sisters. <sup>30</sup> And those he predestined, he also called; those he called, he also justified; those he justified, he also glorified. <sup>31</sup> What, then, shall we say in response to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? <sup>32</sup> He who did not spare his own Son, but gave him up for us all—how will he not also, along with him, graciously give us all things? <sup>33</sup> Who will bring any charge against those whom God has chosen? It is God who justifies. <sup>34</sup> Who then is the one who condemns? No one. Christ Jesus who died—more than that, who was raised to life—is at the right hand of God and is also interceding for us. <sup>35</sup> Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall trouble or hardship or persecution or famine or nakedness or danger or sword? <sup>36</sup> As it is written: “For your sake we face death all day long; we are considered as sheep to be slaughtered.” <sup>37</sup> No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. <sup>38</sup> For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, <sup>39</sup> neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Read the passage and circle words or phrases that are unusual. What do they mean? Write them down here:

Re-read the passage:

Highlight all the things God does for us. Use a different colour to highlight all the things we do for our salvation. What do you notice? _____

Repeat the highlighting with different colours.

This time use one colour for everything that CAN separate us from God.

Use another colour for everything that CAN'T separate us from God's love.

What do you notice? _____

How can we be sure that nothing will separate us from God's love for us in Jesus?

How does this make you feel? (happy, very thankful, amazed...) Can you draw your feelings?
